SHREWSBURY, NJ -

Ian M. Grusd CCIM SIOR was a featured panelist at The Metro New Jersey Chapter of the Appraisal Institute's 79th Annual Princeton conference held last month.

"I was honored to share my viewpoint on current real estate market conditions with the State's top appraisers" stated Grusd.

The Princeton Conference is the longest running annual appraisal conference in the country. Every year since 1936, the Metro New Jersey Chapter of the Appraisal Institute has invited leaders in the real estate industry to offer their insight on the past, present, and future of real estate.

The event was approved for Continuing Education by the Appraisal Institute, New Jersey State Board of Real Estate Appraisers, New York State Board of Real Estate Appraisers and NJ Board of Continuing Legal Education.
